

Thinking Qualitatively: Making a Difference

International Institute for Qualitative Methodology

Virtual Learning & Knowledge Exchange Event

June 15-18, 2026

bit.ly/tq-md

Want to build your skills and knowledge in qualitative methods?

Join us at Thinking Qualitatively! Learn from over 20 experts, with a theme this year of making a difference.

Your registration includes:

- ⇒ Diverse Workshops. Choose from 12 topics with interactive, tailored instruction.
- ⇒ Useful Skill-Builders. Choose from 5 topics to apply practical and technical skills with demonstrations.
- ⇒ Engaging Knowledge Exchange. Learn from others' methods approaches in lightning presentations.
- ⇒ Connection and Networking. Drop in for casual mixers, including a film night!
- ⇒ Recognition of Attendance. Earn your certificate.

Learn more and register here.

Topics include:

Indigenous/Decolonial
Grounded Theory
Qual-Led Mixed Methods
Critical Discourse Analysis
Relational Ethics
Co-Designing Community
Research
Community-Based Participatory Research
Arts-Based Narrative Inquiry
Storyworlding
Photovoice
Post-Qualitative Analysis
Critical Constructivist
Grounded Theory
Coding Causation
Narrative Inquiry
Data Visualization
Policy Briefs

Questions? Get in touch at tqevent@ualberta.ca.